Conditions for UHR funding

If the grant recipient transfer UHR funding to a partner organisation abroad, the grant recipient must enter into this agreement for the transfer of UHR funding with the partner organisation in question. This also applies to other organisations involved in the project to which funds are transferred.

The agreement for the transfer of UHR funding shall be signed by a person who is authorised to sign for the grant recipient (organisation) or by an authorised representative of the grant recipient and the partner organisation that is to receive transferred funds.

The funding may only be used for costs specified in the budget approved by UHR for purposes indicated in the application and within the specified project period.

In all cases where UHR funding is transferred to a partner organisation, the grant recipient shall ensure that the organisation in question keep these funds in a separate bank account.

Reporting

Where UHR funding has been transferred to a partner organisation, the grant recipient shall give details of all such transfers in the financial report.

Where the grant recipient transfers UHR funding to a partner organisation, the grant recipient is responsible for providing an audit of the funds in accordance with the requirements set out in the agreement. There shall be an unbroken chain of audit reports which includes all organisations to which funds have been transferred in the course of the project.

This agreement was drawn up in two original copies, with the two parties to this agreement each retaining one signed copy. The agreement enters into force when these two parties have signed the agreement and is valid until the project's final report has been approved by UHR.
